

CONCEPTS OF LOVE

They say that love is a many splendored thing
Some love is signified by wearing a ring

There is the love a man has for his wife
It's a love he's promised to keep all his life

There is a love a wife has for her man
It's a love that was always in God's plan

There is a love a parent has for a child
It is always strong and never mild

There is the love a child has for its mother
It is a love like no other

There is the love a child has for its father
For him they would do anything, it's no bother

There is the love you have for a friend
May it go on and on and never end

There is the love you have for a brother and sister
Though sometimes to tell them is quite a tongue twister

For God so loved the world we are told
That he did something rather bold

He sent His son to die on a cross
So that we as sinners would not be lost

These are some of the concepts of love
But the greatest...It comes from above

This is how God showed his love among us: He sent his one and only son into the world that we might live through him. This is love; not that we loved God, but that he loved us and sent his son as an atoning sacrifice for our sins. Dear friends since God so loved us, we ought also to love one another. I John 4:9-11

Submitted by Steve Schoppers