

YOUR LIFE IS YOUR GARDEN

Do not miss the message!

The encounter in the garden is not between Jesus and the soldiers. It is between God and Satan - (Satan does not have a prayer!)

1 John 3:8

But when people keep on sinning, it shows they belong to the Devil who has been sinning since the beginning, But the Son of God came to destroy these works of the Devil.

Ephesians 6:10, 11

A final word: Be strong with the Lord's mighty power. Put on all of God's armor so that you will be able to stand firm against all the strategies and tricks of the Devil.

Do not miss the promises...

Satan falls in the presence of Jesus our Christ.

One word from Jesus and the strong army of Satan collapses.

Not once did the enemy speak without Jesus' permission.

Before Christ, Satan had nothing to say.

John 18:8

And again they replied, "Jesus of Nazareth."

"I told you that I am he," Jesus said.

"And since I am the one you want, let these others go."

He did this to fulfill his own statement:

"I have not lost a single one of those you gave me."

Time to THINK.

Has Satan invaded the Garden of your life?

THINK. Has Satan invaded a holy part of your life, your marriage, your purity, and your honesty? Has he taken away a flower from your garden, your life that God gave you?

If so, let Jesus claim it back for you. Open the door for God. Our Father will enter and do the same thing He did at Gethsemane. Jesus will pray and He will protect.

Pray these or similar words: "Precious Father, I give praise to you. You have reclaimed so much of my life. I was lost, and you called out to me. I was confused and you guided me. I have nothing to offer, and you still love me. I confess I still need your help. I have a part of my life that needs your touch. Satan is working in the garden you gave me.

Don't let him win. Drive him out. Satan is a liar, (has been from the beginning). Please defeat him. Father I give you glory over all parts of my garden. This is the area where I need your strength and power.

You fill in the blank
