

Grandma's Sweet Little Marquitta

(Eulogy for two-year-old granddaughter from Lynn Anderson)

Oh how you touched my life, your mother's, brother's, father's, uncles' and grandpa's.

Just in your daily life here on earth, you touched and brought joy to so many people.

You brought smiles to people you met and they brought smiles to you.

You are my princess. A dream come true.

You have a very special place in Grandma's heart.

This will never go away.

I know you are up with Jesus right now.

You are patting the chair telling Jesus to sit down so you can tell him about all the people you met here on earth.

You are a very bright and intelligent girl. So eager to learn and explore. So ready to take on the world by its horns.

God has a different plan for you.

I may never know what it is. I just know and believe it is something very special.

Just remember and know Grandma loves you, and will be thinking and talking to you daily.

You are my little angel now. Watching and guiding me through life.

I will miss you and always love you.

My very special granddaughter,
Marquitta Dannell Goodew
