

TELL ME WHY

For we do not have a high priest who is unable to sympathize with our weaknesses, but we have one who has been tempted in every way, just as we are—yet without sin. Hebrews 4:14 (NIV)

Look into my eyes and see the tears I cry.
Touch my body and feel the misery inside.

Dear Father, tell me why.

Why have I seen so many come and so many go,
and have to pray for people I don't know.

I wonder why evil keeps knocking at my door.

Should I answer it?

I just don't know.

It seems that I'm losing this fight for all the things I thought were right.

Once I thought I had seen the light, only to be pulled back into the night.
I'm calling on You, Jesus Christ to please help me understand what is right.

Please pull me back into the light.

Why does one man take another's life if by God's decree it isn't right?

I pray for all those who live in this life, for all who do and do not believe in Jesus Christ.

Tell me why everyone wants to go to heaven but no one wants to die?

Why can't our dreams become reality?

How come reality seems more like a nightmare?

Tell me why the grass is green.

Tell me why humans feel pain and in the spring it rains?

Why can't fish live on land?

Tell me why God created man, why?

I just don't understand.

As I looked into the clouds I saw my Father's face. He looked down on me and said, "Son, don't lose the faith!" He then disappeared from sight. His voice was tender and light. It was the words of Jesus Christ.

Submitted by Darrell Luce